DOLLS

Usually it is the very young who are willing to experiment.
They feel that any kind of different adventure will enhance their lives.

In the area of masturbation this can sometimes lead to some very turbulent antics.

What has been referred to as "dildo dolls" can easily be misinterpreted by those outside the circle of masturbatory activity. The various instruments employed by the participants are all sizes and shapes. They don't necessarily resemble a child's plaything, and some might seem quite innocent and of little use to anyone interested in serious masturbation.

Any tool only becomes effective in the hands of a craftsman.

To those who purchase a dildo and think that possession will automatically give the owner knowledge it is for a sad awakening.

Only by experimenting will the average dildo become useful. This doesn't mean that a partner is absolutely necessary although one will certainly accelerate the final result.

Picking the right partner can present a number of problems. An aggressive mate can destroy the necessary ambience; one that is too passive will make the experience insipid. There has to be a happy balance between the two before the event becomes memorable.

How much of a chance will you take in a masturbatory session? Most will take none at all because this is an intimate invasion into one of the most personal happenings of their lives.

And yet unless you do let go all the way nothing exciting will ever happen. This doesn't mean that anything goes. There still has to be respect for all those involved, including yourself!

Some of the dildos sold on the open market are really quite inventive. Of course they can't be too avant-garde or they will not serve their purpose. There has to be that ease of handling to make them entirely usable.

Several foreign manufacturers have introduced a number of unique dildos. One known as the "Double-Header" became a particular favorite with the jet crowd for quite a few years. Another one simply known as "The Lube" introduces a stream of hot liquid right at the crucial moment. There have been several variations on this particular invention and this could become one of the most popular dildos of the season.

It is not uncommon for a couple to invent their own kind of dildo to fit their own particular situation. This can solve a number of problems because everyone has their own rhythmic style that can't possibly be ignored.

Probably the ever-probing finger will always be the most popular dildo. Nothing surpasses the personal touch and also the warm caress which always, fulfills. If one finger feels good you can imagine what a combination of two or three will accomplish.

Several dildo parties have been held in the last few months. It is best to prepare your guests for the occasion. Inviting everyone on your usual party list can be a big mistake. Some might even resent your invitation and this can lead to unfortunate misunderstandings. Come out in the open at the very beginning and you'll have a successful dildo affair!

Everyone is looking for that certain understanding partner these days. Success will only come about if we take a chance. We have to reach out and say...

Try Me

In the past it was thought that there was only special places where erotic encounters could take place. Now it all depends upon the circumstance. Meeting in a downtown department store, for instance, might be the right place at the right time.

It is possible to stroll along the aisles glancing here and there without causing too much attention. After all, you are only inspecting the merchandise. What kind of merchandise is no one's business!

Others who have similar inclinations as yourself will immediately pick up on your subtle search. They too want to meet the right one and they don't want any opportunities to slip away from them.

Once a contact is made across one of the counters then it's best to relax for a moment. There will be plenty of action later so there's no sense in using up all your energy right away.

Of course there is always the problem about where to go. No one rents a room these days, it's too expensive. Having fun in the back of a car can really cramp your style. Hopefully one of you will have an available apartment where no one will wander in and ask questions.

Finally you're on your way! At this point you have both exchanged likes and dislikes or at least envisioned what really turns you on. This little talk will pay off later. You can get right into the action without further introduction later.

You have to consider that there will be a few disappointments. You're not going to hit it on the mark every time. There's no such thing as perfection in this world, but don't worry about it.

Is there such a thing as the perfect couple? The answer has to be no because nothing in the world is perfect. Still there are some couples who come pretty close. Cindy and Lola might very well be one to that description.

CINDY & LOLA

The general concept of two girls living together has been distorted through the ages by the sensational fiction writers looking for a best selling novel. They show only the negative side, never do they bother to illustrate the tender area of the relationship.

Of course there will be mis-understandings and perhaps some of these will cause weeks of silence but in the end there will always be that reconciliation that will bring them closer together than before.

Living together also means sharing together. Cindy and Lois have made sure that neither is going to keep secrets. If something is bothering one then the other has to know about it before the day is over.

Any confession has to be entirely free of guilt. If one of them has been having an affair on the side then all she has to do is talk about it and it is forgotten. Maybe there will be more questions later. This shouldn't cause any more arguments because everything is out in the open.

Once a year Cindy and Lola will head in opposite directions. They won't see each other for maybe three or four weeks. Being together all the time can cause the wrong kind of strokes and they have to break it off for a little while. They highly recommend this to other couples also.

There's no such thing as an absolute system. Cindy and Lola are going to continue to make mistakes but they're not afraid to experiment. If they stayed on the same old track year after year then they would soon get very bored. Something different has to be on the horizon at all times.

Long hair has always excited Lola, this is one reason Cindy doesn't cut hers for months at a time. She makes a point to brush her hair at least five hundred times a day. This takes a lot of time out of her schedule but she wouldn't eliminate that routine for anything in the world.

When it comes to making love Cindy is the one with all the tricks. She is always looking for new kinds of toys that she can try out on her friend. Sometimes she wraps them up like Christmas presents and puts them at the foot of Lola's bed. This adds a new kind of excitement in the final discovery.

If you could see Cindy and Lola's dildo collection you wouldn't believe it. You would wonder where they ever got so many different types. They don't usually exhibit them because this is considered very personal property. However, if you have something you'd like to exchange then they will gladly open their usual closed door.

Watching Cindy and Lola make love is a sensational experience you'll never forget. This doesn't mean they cry performing before an excited audience but once in awhile they do like a few interested spectators on the sidelines. This gives them more incentive to try a few different tricks.
